

Hi first name ,

As a follow-up to our conversations with Dr. Wendy Dean, and the Physician Well-Being Team at AdventHealth, comprised of Dr. Michael Torres, Dr. Leila Durr, and Mary Dijkstra, we're hosting an interactive webinar roundtable to spur on a conversation about what needs to change before physician burnout and moral injury can truly be addressed.

Some topics of conversation will include:

- The difference between burnout and moral injury
- What are the root causes of burnout and moral injury
- What needs to change for physicians to enjoy their profession
- How to empower physicians to act as one voice

You can register HERE.

As of now, we've received permission to record the webcast. You're welcome to share it with your staff as well.

Thanks,
Jill
