

Hi there,

In this brilliant virtual round table discussion, we launch a new concept called Q-LEAPx (Leadership Excellence Across Patient Experience) where we bring some of the brightest minds within patient experience in order to proactively share best practices. In this first session, we include some of Quality Review's clients to share their stories while representing some of the most prestigious healthcare institutions in the world.

You can view the session HERE.

Warmest regards,

Jill
